Care Of Your Cat

Who will be responsible for the daily care and health of your cat?

In addition to routine annual exams, veterinarian costs for sickness or injury can be very costly. Are you willing and able to accept this financial responsibility?

Name and Phone Number of your Veterinarian:

Cats have been known to claw furniture, carpets & drapes, dig in potted plants, etc. How do you plan to deal with these potential problems?

Do you have a pet door? Y/N      Do your windows have screens? Y/N      Do you have a balcony Y/N?
Do you have a patio? Y/N

What kind of behaviors do you feel you cannot accept?

Have you ever had a cat declawed? If so, what was the reason?

Are there any circumstances under which you would consider having a cat declawed?

Have you ever given up a pet? If so, why?

How will you provide care for the cat when you travel or in case of emergency?

Cats can live up to twenty (20) years. If you be unable, who will care for the cat of the rest of its life?

Have you already asked this person if they are willing to take this responsibility?

Reasons for wanting a cat (i.e. companionship, family pet, playmate for other pet, gift, etc...):

Have you chosen a particular cat or kitten?      If so, what attracted you to him/her?

How did you hear about the Seal Beach Animal Care Center?

Please initial:

_____ I understand that the adoption process includes a review of my application by the Cat Adoption Committee and in some cases may require a home visit

_____ I understand that SBACC reserves the right to decline the adoption of any cat/kitten

_____ I understand that SBACC reserves the right to reclaim the cat/kitten should SBACC feel any terms of the adoption agreement have been broken

I certify that the above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
